Nate Trainor Book Donation

A big thanks to Jean Trainor and her son Nate for their recent donation of Nate's books "Everybody Plays", to each first grade classroom, and his autobiography "Nate's Triumph", to sixth grade literacy classrooms and every secondary library in the Waterloo Community School District!

These books share Nate's story of living with Joubert syndrome and emphasizes the importance of belonging and inclusion.

Amazing Waterloo Women Book Launch

We celebrated the amazing East High School students and Ms. Lizzie Zondo who received a grant in the spring to publish their book, Amazing Waterloo Women.

This project illuminates the women of Waterloo who have made important impacts, locally and beyond. We couldn't be more excited to be a part of this exciting project!

Save the Date for Giving Tuesday

Giving Tuesday is just around the corner! Giving Tuesday is a global day of giving that falls just after the November 'holidays' of Thanksgiving, Black Friday, Small Business Saturday, and Cyber Monday. Stay tuned for more information about Giving Tuesday and plan to show your support for the Waterloo Schools on 12/3!

WCCx Ribbon Cutting

Last month, we celebrated alongside the community with the Waterloo Schools the Waterloo Career Center Expansion ribbon cutting.

The WCCx houses Expo High School and a handful of Career Center pathways, including sustainable construction and agriculture.

Election Day is Tuesday

While this is an important election nationally, don't forget about our local measures.

Reminder: the unified high school ballot measure is the last question on the ballot. Join us in saving the best for last, and voting YES on November 5th!

Didn't have a chance to attend a town hall meeting? Watch the highlights here.

Celebrating our Living Our Values Award Winners

The WCSD proudly recognizes outstanding employees monthly who embody one of their core values: Collaboration, Equity, Well-Being, and Excellence.

The WSF sponsors these awards by providing each winner a gift card to a local business.
